To make matter worse, the keyboard does not work sometimes, which is extremely annoying. As for the solution, I will mail the product back to you for a further check. If you cannot repair it, you must give me a new one or a full refund.

I do hope that you will give serious thought to my complaint and request, expecting your attention and action.

Yours,

Zhang Wei

5.3 道歉信 - 2018 英 II

Dear Professor Smith,

I am more than regretful to tell you that I have to cancel my original plan, writing this email with the purpose of making an apology and suggesting a future meeting.

The reason why I change my plan is that I come down with serious flu due to unknown virus. My doctor requires me to stay in the hospital until full recovery. I wonder whether you have available time in August. If you have, I will call on you at that time.

I am sorry for any inconvenience caused to you, hoping that you could understand my situation and accept my apology.

Yours Sincerely,

Li Ming

5.4 辞职信 - 2005 英 I

Dear Mr.Wang,

Thanks for giving me a working oppotunity two months ago. Unfortunately, I find the work is unsuitable for me, writing this email with the purpose of quitting my full-time employment.

Relevant reasons can be outlined as follows. More specifically, the salary falls short of my expectation. As a consequence, as a breadwinner, I suffer from huge economic pressure. To make matters worse, the task turns out to be challenging and demanding, because I fail to keep abreast of the latest trend in fashion. Finally, I decide to pursue further study to boost my comprehensive ability.

I am sorry for any inconvenience caused to you, hoping that you could understand my situation and accept my resignation.

Yours Sincerely,

Li Ming
